
Double Gin and tonic with fresh lime please!

Posted by Bonus Expert - 2008/10/26 22:34

Hi Guy's

Ive pm'ed the admin and he says this section is for just general chat, "like if you where in the bar next to the casino floor" where his exact words lol.

Well I dunno about you but I always start my land based casino sessions with a double gin and tonic, love it!

If I win big then it's got to end with champagne, gorgous!

How do you guys like to start and end your casino sessions, online or otherwise?

BE B)

IF I'm In a Casino I keep the drink to a minimum so as not to do anything stupid lol. But I will start the night with a beer and a shot of Jack if the mood hits me.

I wonder if they casinos pressure you to have a drink?

"Come on, have a shot of X, It will relax you" says the dealer.

Red bull is good for me though, help you think clearly.

Hi,

I tend to drink coffee when I play as I am often at my computer for hours late at night, I don't think I would want to mix alcohol and betting. I did play blackjack once after quite a few beers and lost the lot, not recommended.

Coffee makes me sleeper for some reason.

But red bull wakes the horses in me.

Alcohol can help you and cool you. It's not that bad but if you really really drunk, best if you hand over your credit cards and money to someone you trust.

Yeah, I didnt mean get hammered lol, that's definately NOT a food idea :blink:

A g+t helps me relax before a game, I get hammered when I win big :silly:

They really don't pressure you at all. Free drinks eat into the profits I guess. It's like pulling teeth to get a drink in some casinos lol.

Depending on the casino and they type of drink your ordering they may or may not charge you.

Also depends if it's holidays and other days.

But one thing is for sure, if your spending thousands at their casino, they WILL make sure to get you drinks of your kind. Not more than they make from your profits though...lol

But in short, casinos don't just hand anyone free drinks. If your playing for lots of money or if it's a special time they may or may not give you drinks.

And then it will also depend on what drinks are available for you...?

But either way if they aren't free, no big deal, most people aren't that cheap- They will buy them out of their pocket.

Some are cheap though. depends.

But I love a nice Pina Colada with either vodka or rum. Just one though. Not two... just one...

I like to mix it together and do caffeine and alcohol to keep me relaxed and on the ball. One or two redbull vodkas over the course of the night always suits me.

But yeah, if I win big, I always enjoy buying drinks for everyone nearby, a little token of good will you know? :)
