Hi Rebecca,

I am also quite interested in gambling. I enjoy playing roulette mainly and sometimes slots. I don't suppose you know how long it takes to withdraw your winnings from ladbrokes, I'm still waiting to receive £500 which I made playing roulette, no sign of it yet.

Anyway nice to meet ya,

Phil

Hi

You should use the same withdrawal method as you used to deposit to get that cash as fast as ;) 2 - 5 working day's back to a credit or debit card if that's what you used to deposit.

Hey £500 is pretty good man, did you use a system or anything for that?

If you got the bonus before playing you will not have been able to turn it over in roulette at Lads, BJ is cool though for bonus turning, pretty sure it's 20 times the deposit and bonus at Lads.
