Hey

What kind of pointers are you after? What are your goals, I would say its a good goal to simply want to make money and have fun at the same time.

Thats what I do with online casinos and it's great!

Yes, I would say it's always good to play with demo money until you get used to a casino, or with free money a lot of them give out.

Below is some free money offers I found, I'll keep you updated on any more I find.
