Hey

Not sure if you guy's know about this but Ladbrokes has the best deal on right now, you get £20 no deposit.

Anyway here's the direct link to it, make sure you guy's let me know if you do well out of it!

Ladbrokes £20 free TV promotion

Hope that helps!

Good Luck people!

Hi Be,

Cheers for the tip didn't know about that one, unfortunately I'm an existing member of ladbrokes so they said I couldn't have the £20. It's only for new customers apparently :angry:

Do you know of any other free bonuses?

Cheers, Phil

Hi Mate

I am currently looking into the jackpot city casino promo

It's quite complicated but according to what Ive worked out so far you get £500 free no deposit.

You can transfer any WINNINGS on that into your real account upto £250.

You need to make the minimum deposite to be able to transfer the winnings to your real account.

The transfer then effectively becomes a bonus and can be withdrawn after the turnover has been met.

Let me look into this further and get back to you when I have tried it! It's look better than a lot of these no deposit bonuses, but not as good as ladbrokes.

Hi,

Cool, cheers for the info looks good, might give it a go, although not too sure as I only really play at casinos I've heard of.

Let me know how you get on, then I may join

Cheers, Phil

Hi There,

I think the turn requirements at Jackpot are 30 x bonus which is a little steep... I think with this no deposit bonus you have to be a first time players and they get deposited into your account as 500 credits to play with for 30 minutes. Once this period is up, anything over this can be deposited into your real account as long as you make a minimum real deposit at the casino. Is that what you're saying? That's not too bad, although not much different than making a minimum deposit at any other casino and getting say a 300% bonus to play with.

Have you given it a try yet? Let me know what else you find out. :)

Been looking at jackpot city a bit more, found this out:

They have a low minimum deposit as follows

$20 for all US and CA

£10 for all UK

€10 for all European

Pretty good because you could get a £250 bonus by just depositing £10 if your in the UK, best deal is for the UK in my opinion.

^ Jackpot City is pretty good too.

In fact my cousin won 300 something pounds last week with them completely on the deal that Bonus Expert is talking about.

I've heard many people say that Jackpot City is one of those "easy to get" casinos...lol

Hi guys and girls

Check out William Hill Casino, at the moment they're giving away £150 to members.

Thought i'd share it with you all

:)
