
Some ideas!

Posted by gary12k - 2008/10/17 12:49

Hello people!

Love the forum BUT!

It could use some more category's, there are bigger casinos forums out there which have loads of category's. Maybe popping over to check them out for some ideas?

Also the site layout could use a few tweaks, bulletin points on the left side navigation are hanging over the template design.

I don't want to get too nit picky so I will leave it there, in case I sound a little too snobbish lol

hi,

Thank you for your comments, I have taken a look at the bullet points and there is a glitch when using firefox, I will try and resolve this as soon as possible. If you open this page with ie you will not see any errors.

I am also looking at some additional subjets to add

How about making a section for sports booking?

A lot of people are into sports booking..

Just a thought.

Thank you for the idea but we are trying to keep the content orientated around casino bonuses, so at this moment we will not be adding a sports section to the forum.

thank you

Hi garyl2k,

I certainly agree with you. I think the following categories should be added:

Online Sports Betting
Videos and News
Casinos To Avoid
Online Casino Sites

You will got all this games on: www.flashgamedownloader.com

Hi

It would be agood idea to have a sports betting section with the best no risk sports bets, I always love them!

I also think a sports betting section with risk free bets would be a good idea, I know 888sport.com have a completely risk free £20 bet, I'll have a search around and see if i can find any more ;)

Hello,

Making a different section for sports betting is really a good option. But there are certain categories also which can be added. There addition will certainly be a help for sports betting section.:)

Thanks
Just Casino Betting
