
An old friend returns, hi all!

Posted by garyl2k - 2008/10/15 16:48

Hello all,

Well what can I say, glad to see an old friend start a message board about online casinos! Glad he told me about this too, gonna be some great information shared between top gamblers here and will learn loads.

I also hope that some of my knowledge can help others, I ain't no pro but I know a few things or to.

Can't wait for the boards to get filled up with more members, gonna be a great place here indeed!

Anyway, more about me, I'm Gary, live in the UK and play a few casinos online here and there. I don't play to make thousands but mostly as a hobby when I am bored.

I will end on a "Hope you all doing well and winning loads"

Talk soon!

Thanks

Gary

Hey Gary,

Nice to see you on here. Yeah I hope we get a lot more friendly people on the boards too! More people to exchange tips and experiences with.

Yeah, I like doing a bit of online gambling as a hobby as well. Nothing like coming home and chilling out on playing a few hands of poker or a bit of blackjack. Of course, if I get really good at it I might now even have to go to work!

take care,

Becca :)
